25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

EXCLUSIVELY YOURS—

—BY BETTY BEALE

THE WALTER LIPPMANNS said goodbye at their annual June party yesterday before taking off for their annual three-month vacation in Maine. As always at the Lippmanns' their drawing room and terrace were filled with notables.

There was Justice Arthur Goldberg telling Clare Luce that Barry Goldwater was his unit commander in the Air Force Reserve. There's talk now that members of Congress may have to give up their reserve commissions because of possible conflict of interest when voting for appropriations.

There was Ambassador Kenneth Galbraith, who is giving up his Indian post to return to the professional life, chatting with Senator Bill Fulbright, and former Gov. and Mrs. Leroy Collins, having a word with Dean Pearson, Luvie Pearson and Mrs. Averell Harriman were in a threesome with Bill Woodward, who has just given up his ambassador's post in Guinea and doesn't know yet what his next job will be. "I'm in limbo," said the goodlooking young ambassador with a smile.

British Minister Dennis Greenhill was swapping quips with Walter Ridder and Alfred Friendly about haircuts. Said Dennis, there's a barber at the Mayflower named Benny "who takes care of all the British hair in Washington. You come out," explained the Minister in his clipped British accent. "Shocks, like you want to be shaved in America?" he asked him? "No, no," said "Oll" exclaiming "No" with a peevish Nobel poet Alexis Leger was among the Lippmann guests, as were Secretary of Defense and Mrs. McNamara, Senator Leverett Saltonstall, Mme. Alphand, the Dan Kimballs and Adam Yarmolinski, who said the TFX contract was given to General Dynamics because they could make a better and cheaper plane. "Wait till McNamara gets on the stand," he said to his listeners.

Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Douglas Dillon, the Francis Biddles, the Phillips Geyelins, the Joseph Kraft, Henry Brandon, Marian and Arthur Schlesinger, and dozens of others dropped by the 6-10-68 party.
